Office of the President

To My Beloved Shaw University Family:

“Strides to Excellence.” We push ever onward, accepting only the best and working to make our world a better place. This does not mean, however, that we should refrain from taking a moment from time to time and enjoy memories of the past and remember the good times. It is during those times we find the energy to go forward and a deeper understanding of the bigger picture of our journey.

This yearbook is an ideal way to do just that. In its pages, we find pictures of familiar faces, and images of good times shared with family and friends. We laugh, we reminisce, and we find both energy and inspiration for our continuing journey.

So stop. Sit down. Take some time to flip through these pages and re-enjoy the good times of the past year. Remember where you’ve been, and let that help guide you to where you should be.

And in that moment of contemplation, join me in a prayer of thanks for the dedicated students, staff, and faculty members that make this yearbook possible. You hold in your hands their labor of love, and I want to congratulate them for their outstanding work.

Join me in looking back on the year, then let’s move forward with a renewed sense of purpose and an even deeper understanding of what is meant when we say “Strides to Excellence: Only the Best.” It is a journey we can only take as a family. Thank you for joining me on that path.

Yours sincerely,

Clarence G. Newsome
President

Thomas J. Boyd Chapel dedicated in 1948

The Boyd Chapel at Shaw University was first dedicated on June 15, 1948. After WWII, the United States military had a surplus of wood framed "temporary" chapel buildings. Shaw University applied for one of these chapels and one was so designated. The chapel came from Camp Sutton, located in Monroe, Union County, North Carolina.

In 1993, The Boyd Chapel was completely renovated from funds donated by Rev. Thomas J. Boyd for whom the chapel was subsequently named.

University
Students

Open in 1881 as Leonard Medical School and for over thirty-five years it established itself as both the first four-year medical school for black students in the United States, and the first four-year medical school in North Carolina. Leonard Hall was built to train Christian physicians to serve African Americans. Today, this building houses the Shaw University Divinity School which ministers and develops preachers to serve in the spirit of the Lord.

Black people have evolved over the years. We have transformed ourselves into intellectuals, and philanthropist, and continue to strive in our endeavors. This is an amazing feat, when you put into consideration where we have come from. We have come from the great lands of Africa, to the slave boats of our European counterparts. We have plowed their fields, and were susceptible to their cruel and harsh ways. To come to where we are is truly amazing, but it is not our zenith. We are still climbing the mountain towards, equality, and continue to display to the world that we are perseveres. In this yearbook we hope that we have given you a glimpse of our historical past in correlation with our prosperous future. We hope that you have enjoyed it!!

Success

To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people and the
affection of children;
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure
the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others;
To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition;
To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.

This is to have succeeded.

The Stained Glass Pattern connotes the interrelation and inter-dependence of religion and learning proclaimed in the School Motto: PRO CHRISTO ET HUMANITATE.

The Torch carries with it the idea of light that shows the pathway to truth

The Olive Branch emphasizes victory and pursuit of excellence

The Dove, a Christian symbol, portrays the Institution's commitment to a religious heritage.

The Human Figures represent all who have come to and gone, imbued with spirit so clearly enunciated in the life of the founder of Shaw University, Dr. Henry Martin Tupper, "He counted not his life dear unto himself that he might lift God ward his brother."

Alma Mater

(Loyalty Song)

*Hail Dear Old Shaw U,
Thy sons revere thy name,
Long shall thy works be proud,
Undimmed thy fame*

*Time shall thy praises sing,
Glory repay thy tears,
And loud thy praises ring,
Thru all the years.*

*Noble thy hallways,
Noble thy grassy plains,
Nobler the hearts of men,
Where thou dost reign*

*All we who love thy name,
Stout hearts that shall not fail
All rise and loud proclaim,
Alma Mater, Hail!*
